

In subsection (a) of this section, the reference to coverage "for affected properties" is added for clarity and consistency. Similarly, in subsection (b) of this section, the reference to coverage "for an affected property" is added.

In subsections (c), (d), and (e) of this section, the references to a lead hazard "coverage" exclusion are added for clarity and consistency within this section.

In subsections (c) and (g) of this section, the references to an "authorized" insurer are added to reflect the intended scope of this subtitle.

In subsection (c) of this section, the reference to the "issu[ance]" of a policy is substituted for the former reference to the "inception" of a policy for clarity.

The introductory language of subsection (d) of this section is revised to clarify that the authorized insurer is required to waive the lead hazard coverage exclusion.

Also in the introductory language of subsection (d) of this section, the reference to a "policy" is substituted for the former reference to a "contract of insurance" for consistency within this section.

In subsection (d)(1) of this section, the reference to the "owner of the" affected property complying with Title 6, Subtitle 8, Part III of the Environment Article is added to reflect legislative intent and for accuracy since it is the owner of affected property, and not the affected property, that must comply with the reporting requirements contained in Title 6, Subtitle 8, Part III.

In subsections (d)(2)(ii) and (g)(1)(ii) of this section, the references to a risk reduction "standard" are substituted for the former references to risk reduction "standards" because an affected property need satisfy only one standard under § 6-815(a)(2) of the Environment Article.

In subsection (e) of this section, the reference to an offer "to be made" is added for consistency within this section.

Also in subsection (e) of this section, the reference to "waiving a lead hazard coverage exclusion as required by subsection (d)" of this section is substituted for the former reference to "waiver of a lead hazard exclusion under subsection (a)" of this section for clarity.

Also in subsection (e) of this section, the reference to the "Commissioner" is substituted for the former reference to the "Administration" to reflect § 2-103(b) of this article, which provides that the Commissioner shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Administration, and for consistency with the terminology used throughout this article.

In the introductory language of subsection (g)(1) of this section, the reference to a "lead hazard coverage" exclusion "in a policy for an affected property" is added for clarity. Similarly, in the introductory language of subsection
